

I firmly believe that NJ's strict "do not call" regulations should be left alone. Just because I have a telephone doesn't give hundreds of telemarketer's the right to call me. It has nothing to do with freedom of speech. They can stand on any street corner they want to and sell whatever they like. They just can't call me and attempt to impart their free speech on me when I don't want to hear it. By putting my name on this list I'm making it clear that I don't want any of their calls.
